

Overview

The Webb Media Player Cowboy Remote will give you the ability to view multiple types of video files directly on your computer. With the Webb Media Player Software and USB New Cowboy Remote, you can control AVI files, DV files, MPEG-II, Windows Media Files and DVDs. Included with the software are Bookmarks and Play Lists to help organize your video within the program and recall certain plays to view during meetings or film sessions.

Detailed Specs

- Supports Play and Stop for all video formats
- Offers every function of The Cowboy Remote for DV-AVI files
- Virtual Cowboy Remote with scrolling text can be displayed or turned off
- Onscreen display of video commands for instant visual feedback
- Access to DVD menu with Cowboy Remote
- Custom set text, background and highlight colors
- Play from one file in a play list to the next
- Rename files within a play list without affecting the actual file name
- Sort play lists from A to Z or Z to A
- Save a play list to reload the video files any time
- Enter remarks as the Bookmark names
- Use Bookmarks to identify key points in video
- Use Bookmarks to jump to points of emphasis within the video
- Drag and drop Bookmarks in any order
- Save Bookmarks to reuse at a later time
- Email Bookmarks to other coaches

Included Accessories

- Webb Media Player Software Disc
- USB Cowboy Remote (with or without Laser pointer)